TODAY'S THE DAY!

GIVE FROM YOUR HOME AND FROM YOUR HEART

Dear Friend of the Ronald McDonald House of Delaware,

We've all been affected by the pandemic, but we know that people like you do not sit by when others around you need help, even when our attention is focused on so many serious issues.

That's why we need you to celebrate April's first-ever #GiveFromHomeDay.

People here in Delaware are reeling from the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on our communities and neighborhoods. But for families who had to travel here to get their children the care they need, it's even more devastating. It's hard enough in normal times, but unthinkable during a pandemic. The last thing they should worry about is where to stay and how to get meals.

Please, take a moment right now and give as generously as you can, because every dollar you can spare can help keep a family together during the hardest time of their lives.

And after you give, spread the word by using #GiveFromHomeDay on your social media networks, so others can join the movement today.

P.S. If you've already given in support of #GiveFromHomeDay or any of our other fundraising efforts, thank you!
