DEWEY BEACH BUDDY 5K RUN

The Dewey Beach Lions Club will continue their pancake breakfast tradition on Sunday, August 7 from 8 AM to 10 AM. The breakfast is held in support of the annual Dewey Beach Buddy 5K Run, which starts and finishes that morning at the Lions Club clubhouse, on the bay, at 115 McKinley Ave. (next to Northbeach). The breakfast, consisting of pancakes, eggs, bacon, sausage, home fries, coffee and juice, is prepared and served by Dewey Beach Lions' members and is free to registered runners of the 5k race. The cost to non-runners is just $8 for adults and $4 for children. To register for the 5K run, go to www.bestbuddiesdelaware.org/events.

TURN THE TOWNS TEAL – DELAWARE OVARIAN CANCER FOUNDATION

Turn The Towns Teal® is a national campaign held from September 1–30 to promote awareness of ovarian cancer and its subtle symptoms -- teal is the color for ovarian cancer. Participating businesses in downtown Rehoboth Beach (specifically Rehoboth Avenue) place teal bows preferably on the exterior of their property and make available symptom cards during the month of September. Bows can be picked up at the Chamber administrative office – 509 Rehoboth Avenue. Proposed date/time for PIN UP of Teal Bows: Sept. 1, 10:00 AM - 12:00 noon; TAKE DOWN of Teal Bows: Sept. 30, 10:00 AM - 12:00 noon (by campaign volunteers who will store them for use the next year). To participate, e-mail Sally Oberle – sally.bluehen@comcast.net and for more information, visit the website turnthetownsteal.com and view the project "Turn the Towns Teal".
