MÉLOMANIE CELEBRATES BRAZIL WITH A CONCERT DEBUT IN REHOBOTH BEACH

Mélomanie - the music ensemble known for its "provocative pairings" travels to Rehoboth for a one-night-only event celebrating the music and cuisine of Brazil and a World Premiere of The Sound of the Sea by Brazilian composer, Liduino Pitombeira. The evening begins on Saturday, April 23, with a 4:00 PM concert at CAMP Rehoboth Community Center, followed by a lively reception at Lula Brazil Restaurant on Rehoboth Avenue. The concert features visiting guest artist Pitombeira, who will travel from Rio for this premiere and talk with the audience about The Sound of the Sea during the performance. Guest artists joining the ensemble are Rainer Beckmann on recorder, Eve Friedman on flute and Naomi Gray on cello. Works by Rameau, Lully, Schieferdecker and Maute complete the program. Tickets for the concert and reception are $35 and can be purchased online at melomanie.org.
