BEACH GOES CAMO MILITARY WEEKEND - APRIL 24-26, 2015

What is the Military Weekend All About? The weekend is a series of events including a 5K Run/Walk in honor of John M. Scharp, who played an active role with the USO Delaware Advisory Council. John passed away in April 2014 of a rare form of cancer. This weekend evolved to honor his life and continue his mission of thanking the men and woman who serve our country. How Can My Company Help? Your company can help us promote M-Give! M-Give is a text-in to give campaign. Participants in the campaign will ask their patrons to text the keyword BRAVE to 50555. Donations will be billed directly to the phone carrier, no need to provide credit card information. How Can My Company Participate? Easy! Just email beachgoescamo@gmail.com for more information. You will be provided with signage and informational cards to hand out to patrons. There is no cost to participate in M-Give!!! How Many Military Members will be in Town? Look for their "The Beach Goes Camo" Military Tee shirts with your logo on the back! Members of the military will receive a FREE tee shirt to wear during the weekend. This Tee Shirt will let everyone in town know that they are active or retired military and to stop and say thanks for their service. What Else is Involved? We are encouraging each business participating in the M-Give campaign to offer something special to military members. Some examples include a free appetizer, a small token or discount when they stop in. How Does this Benefit My Company? All M-Give participants' logos will be featured on the Military Weekend Tee Shirts, company listing on the Beach Goes Camo website, as well as promoted on our website www.beachgoescamo.com.
