WEATHER UPDATE AND STATEMENT

From the Sussex County Emergency Operations Center: “The National Weather Service in Mt. Holly, N.J., has issued a high wind warning and a coastal flood warning for Sussex County through Thursday morning, with forecasters predicting wind gusts as high as 60 mph and moderate tidal flooding possible in low-lying areas, particularly along the Atlantic and Delaware Bay coasts. Additionally, severe beach erosion and rainfall of 1 to 2 inches are possible from this storm.”

If your business is located beachfront or within one of the above listed areas – you know the drill – consider moving inventory.

SPECIAL NOTICE – NO BUSINESS AFTER HOURS TONIGHT

Business After Hours scheduled for tonight, Wednesday, November 7, will not be held. See you at the next holiday Business After Hours at Bethany Blues in Lewes on Wednesday, December 12 from 5:00-7:00 PM.
